

Why work for Santa Rosa Consulting?

You will be working with the most innovative team, we have revolutionized the way people live and work through technology, we have created the tools and technologies that are changing the way of the future to deliver precise professional services at an affordable price.

We are NOT Your Average Workplace

Our employees capitalize on their choices, whether they want to work full-time, part time, 1099, or a reduced travel schedule. We treat people with respect and offer challenging assignments, development opportunities; you customize your benefits to meet your needs.

Join our Team today

Join our team and maximize your career to meet your needs. So far this year, 200+ consultants have registered on our web site to join our team!